MYS
ARCHITECTS

AMI MOORE
MANAGING PARTNER

Profession
Architect & Urban Designer Israeli Association of Architects

Key Data

1978 - 1983
"Technion", Israel's leading Institution of Technology - Graduated BSc in Architecture & town planning with outstanding honor.

1982 - 1989
Moore Architects Joined the firm as a young architect and worked his way up to become a team manager, in charge on some of the firm's major projects.

1989 - 1991
Tel Aviv Municipality, head of East Tel Aviv city planning. In charge of developing Town Planning, Urban Design and Design guidelines and policy for Tel Aviv largest district.

1989 - 2005
Moore Speakman International, formed a consulting partnership with Leigh Speakman (one of the world's leading shopping centers designers). The partnership provided consulting and planning services for shopping center and mixed developments design worldwide.

1991 - 1995
Moore Architects, rejoined the firm as head of the design team, leading large scale project in Israel and Eastern Europe and leading a substantial growth and restructuring of the firm.

2005 - 1995
Moore Architects, leading the firm as a managing architect, developing new markets with wide variety of projects and new clients. Involved in the firm's major projects. During those years Moore Architects has become one of the top three leading architectural firms in Israel.

2005 - Today
MYS Architects, Managing Partner - Merged Moore Architects with Yaski Sivan Architects, establishing MYS Architects (Moore Yaski Sivan), becoming Israel leading and largest architectural firm, with a staff of more than 130 professionals and project in 32 countries in Europe, Asia and Africa and Israel.